EXTRACTS FROM THE ACCOUNT ROLLS
OF THE
ABBAY OF DURHAM,
FROM THE ORIGINAL MSS.

VOL. II.

Published for the Society.

SQUARE;

At a Meeting of the Council of the SURTEES SOCIETY, held in Durham Castle on March 7th, 1899, CANON
GREENWELL in the chair,

It was resolved,

That the second Volume for the year 1898 be Vol. II of the Account Rolls of the Abbey of Durham, edited by CANON FOWLER.

WILLIAM BROWN,

Secretary.

PREFACE.

THIS second volume of Account Rolls is appearing earlier than has been anticipated, in consequence of a handsome donation made by the Dean and Chapter of Durham to the Surtees Society, "on condition that the books edited by Canon Fowler shall be completed as soon as possible." The printing of the text is therefore being pushed on, and of this there is enough now left to fill about half of the third volume, the remainder of which is to contain a General Introduction, Notes, Glossary, and a very full Index. It is obviously impossible to proceed very far with these until the whole of the text is printed, but the Editor hopes that any members of the Society who may have found Vols. I and II somewhat unattractive, will have less occasion for disappointment in the case of Vol. III. It will be his endeavour to make the General Introduction as interesting as he can, by bringing together the principal facts that may be gathered from the Rolls to illustrate the daily life of a great Benedictine House, and to help us to picture for ourselves the Abbey alive and at work.

Those who care to read the actual extracts from the Rolls, and there are such, will find this second volume by no means inferior in interest to the former one. Such as are interested in mediæval farming will discover much that is curious in the Stock-keepers' Rolls.

The Marescalcia Rolls seem, at first sight, to be as mysterious as Domesday, but with a little attention, and by the help of the conjectural expansions and translations given on pp. 326, 327, it will not be difficult to make out the rest of these Rolls, which open out a curious and little known phase in the jurisdiction of a great feudal lord, the Prior of Durham.

The Sacrists' and Feretrars' Rolls are full of information with regard to the Church and the Shrines, and reveal many facts which have been unknown ever since the dissolution of the Monastery.

The same may be said of the Bursars' Rolls, which in bulk exceed all the rest put together, and it has been especially difficult to decide what to select out of such an immense mass of material. On this point the Editor may perhaps be allowed to refer to his former Preface, p. viii.

The present volume ends with the Bursar's Roll for 1370-71; the next will contain the remainder, together with a few miscellaneous extracts, mostly belonging to the period that immediately followed the Dissolution.

The preparation of the Introduction, Index, etc., will require a considerable time; other volumes that have been long in hand are in a forward state, and hence it follows that our third volume can hardly be issued in less than a couple of years from the present time.

Multon; Rec.

This roll is endorsed, Comp. Instaurator. de diversis Maneriis.

On the back of this roll are also lists of names with what seem to be wages or alms in small sums of money or in milk and other provisions; they are arranged under places, thus:—Shyncliff, 45 names; Baronia, 90; Elvett, 84; Fynkall, 11; Burne, 5; Aldurham, 9; Brome et Rille, 14; Stottesgate, 3; Hoghall, 5; Aldyngrigge, 2.

These lists are in different writing and seem to have no connection with the accounts of stock.

MARESCALCIA PRIORIS.

The rolls that appear under this head have no connection with "marescalcia" in its usual sense as denoting farriery, but relate to an inspection of weights, measures, etc., which formed a part of the business of the various manor courts held by the authority of the Prior, and seems to have been conducted by the Terrar, Bursar, or others (see pp. 305, 329, 336). These Marescalcia Rolls are so much contracted, and the contractions are often so ambiguous or obscure, that it has been thought best to print them as nearly as possible as they stand, only expanding some contractions in italic type, and printing without any stops. A few sentences are here given with conjectural expansion and translation.

Willelmus Pouer, brasiator, buscellus ; firmarius, molendinarius ; buscellus non sigillatus, ideo forisfactus, ideo in misericordia. Non ostendit galonem, potellum, nec quartam, ideo in misericordia, nec mensuras molendini ; ideo plegius de fine et misericordia Johannes Teddi.

William Pouer is a brewer, (he has) a bushel-measure. He is a farmer (i.e. has land on lease), and is a miller ; his bushel is not sealed, and is therefore forfeited, therefore he is amerced (subject to a small fine). He does not exhibit a gallon, pottle, nor quart measure, therefore he is amerced, nor the measures of his mill ; therefore John Teddi is surety for the fine and amerciament.

Johannes Teddi, buscellus, brasiator, pistor, hospitator¹ ; non ostendit preter galonem bonum et sigillatum, potellum et terciam non sigillatos, buscellum, pec non sigillat., ideo forisfactus ; plegius de fine et misericordia, et quia brasiat contra assisam, Willelmus Pouer.

John Teddi has a bushel, is a brewer, a baker, an innkeeper ; he does not show anything but a gallon good and sealed, a pottle, and a third-part (of a gallon) not sealed, a bushel, a peck not sealed, therefore forfeited. William Pouer is surety for the fine and amerciament, and because he brews contrary to the assise (of ale).

Johannes de Redworth, brasiator ; (habet) galonem bonum et sigillatum ; non ostendit potellum nec quartam nec terciam, et brasiat contra assisam ; plegius Willelmus fil. Henrici.

John de Redworth is a brewer ; he has a gallon good and sealed ; he does not show a pottle nor a quart nor a third-part (of a gallon) and he brews contrary to the assize : his surety is William Harrison.

Willelmus Colson, carnifex, ostendit pondus ad valenciam 14*li.*, non sigillatum, ideo forisfactum, et in misericordia, et quia vendit carnes contra assisam, ideo ponit se in gratiam domini ; plegius de fine et misericordia Willelmus Pouer.

William Colson, butcher, shews a 14 lb. weight not sealed, therefore forfeited, and he is amerced, and, because he sells meat contrary to the assize, therefore he throws himself on the mercy of the lord (of the manor, i.e., the Prior). William Pouer is surety for the fine and amerciamment.

Ranulphus Webster (habet) ulnam nimis parvam, ideo forisfactam ; plegius Johannes de Halghton de misericordia.

Ralph Webster has an ell that is too short, it is therefore forfeited ; his surety for the amerciament is John Halghton.

Any reader who is sufficiently interested will probably be able to make out most of what follows ; on doubtful points he must exercise his own judgment.

1344? The following passage occurs in Raine's "St. Cuthbert," p. 105:—

"I find in the Bursar's Roll, or great roll of yearly accounts for the year 1344, a curious entry, which may be thus translated:—

"To divers persons for carrying letters from the Prior to the chief men (proceribus) of the Bishoprick, soliciting them to be present at the feast of St. Cuthbert in March, 6*d*."

¹ "Girthtrees" in the other copy.

There seems to be some mistake here, as I have not been able to find the passage, and the payment is surely inadequate.—ED.

Comp. Joh'is de Beryngdon de denariis per ipsum receptis et expensis circa structuram nove coquine a festo Sci. Martini Anno D'ni Millesimo ccc lxxvij^o, usque (blank).¹ Date re-written; read lxxvij^o; see p. 572.

¹ This Roll includes the expenses mentioned at the head of Reparaciones domorum, in the Bursar's Roll of 1368-9. It is referred to in Scriptores tres, 132, note, where it is spoken of as if it were the only one. There were, however, similar accounts for 1366-8 and 1370-71, as appears in the Bursar's Rolls of those years. No rolls of 1369-70 have been preserved. The work appears to have been going on at least from 1366 to 1371.

Idem respondet de 4*li.* receptis de collectoribus nove collecte, ut patet per indenturam inter ipsos factam.

Et de 76*s.* 8*d.* receptis de iisdem collectoribus per eandem indenturam.

Et de 6*li.* 14*s.* 4*d.* receptis de eisdem per aliam indenturam de A^o D'ni, etc., lxx (?) inter ipsos factam.

Et de 40*s.* receptis de eisdem per manus Joh'is de Billesfeld sine indentura.

[The names and numbers of the workmen are stated each week, with their wages, but as the upper part of the Roll is partly illegible, only the main facts are here given therefrom, certain weeks' accounts being given below, by way of specimens, with other matters of interest].

THE SURTEES SOCIETY.

REPORT FOR THE YEAR M.DCCC.XCIX.

PRINTED BY

DURHAM.

THE SURTEES SOCIETY.

REPORT FOR THE YEAR M.DCCC.XCIX.

SINCE the last Report of the Society was issued in the Spring of 1897, the Society has cleared off all arrears in its publications. In the interval three volumes have appeared. The first, volume No. 98, being the commencement of the Beverley Chapter Act Book, edited by Mr. A. F. Leach, F.S.A. It contains a number of documents illustrative of the constitution and method of administration of a chapter of secular canons. By the liberality of the Dean and Chapter of Durham, who have voted £150 for the purpose, the Society has been able to print, under the editorship of the Rev. Canon Fowler, two volumes (Nos. 99 and 100) of Extracts from the Rolls of the Officials of the Priory of Durham. They may be compared with Memorials of Ripon, already published by the Society under the same editorship. The third volume will contain a glossary of the unusual terms.

Members who desire to purchase any of the Society's volumes, most of which may be had at reduced prices, should communicate with the Secretary, through whom alone the sale can be made. Any public body becoming a subscriber will receive a grant of several of the volumes already published.

THE SURTEES SOCIETY,

ESTABLISHED IN THE YEAR 1834,

IN honour of the late Robert Surtees, of Mainsforth, Esquire, the author of the History of the County Palatine of Durham, and in accordance with his pursuits and plans ; having for its object the publication of inedited Manuscripts, illustrative of the intellectual, the moral, the religious, and the social condition of those parts of England and Scotland included on the east between the Humber and the Firth of Forth, and on the west between the Mersey and the Clyde, a region which constituted the ancient Kingdom of Northumbria.

NEW RULES AGREED UPON IN 1849 ; REVISED 1863.

I.—The Society shall consist of not more than three hundred and fifty members.

II. There shall be a Patron of the Society, who shall be President.

III.—There shall be twenty-four Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, and two Treasurers.

IV.—The Patron, the Vice-Presidents, the Secretary, and the Treasurers, shall form the Council, any five of whom, including the Secretary and a Treasurer, shall be a quorum competent to transact the business of the Society.

V.—The twenty-four Vice-Presidents, the Secretary, and the Treasurers, shall be elected at a general meeting, to continue in office for three years, and be capable of re-election.

VI.—Any vacancies in the office of Secretary or Treasurers shall be provisionally filled up by the Council, subject to the approbation of the next general meeting.

VII.—Three meetings of the Council shall be held in every year, on the first Tuesday in the months of March, June, and December ; and the place and hour of meeting shall be fixed by the Council, and communicated by the Secretary to the members of the Council.

VIII.—The meeting in June shall be the Anniversary, to which all the members of the Society shall be convened by the Secretary.

IX.—The Secretary shall convene extraordinary meetings of the Council, on a requisition to that effect, signed by not less than five members of the Council, being presented to him.

X.—Members may be elected by ballot at any of the ordinary meetings, according to priority of application, upon being proposed in writing by three existing members. One black ball in ten shall exclude.

XI.—Each member shall pay in advance to the Treasurer the annual sum of one guinea. If any member's subscription shall be in arrear for two years, and he shall neglect to pay his subscription after having been reminded by the Treasurer, he shall be regarded as having ceased to be a member of the Society.

XII.—The money raised by the Society shall be expended in publishing such compositions, in their original language, or in a translated form, as come within the scope of this Society, without limitation of time with reference to the period of their respective authors. All editorial and other expenses to be defrayed by the Society.

XIII.—One volume, at least, in a closely printed octavo form, shall be supplied to each member of the Society every year, free of expense.

XIV.—If the funds of the Society in any year will permit, the Council shall be at liberty to print and furnish to the members, free of expense, any other volume or volumes of the same character, in the same or a different form.

XV.—The number of copies of each publication, and the selection of a printer and publisher, shall be left to the Council, who shall also fix the price at which the copies, not furnished to members, shall be sold to the public.

XVI.—The armorial bearings of Mr. Surtees, and some other characteristic decoration connecting the Society with his name, shall be used in each publication.

XVII.—A list of the officers and members, together with an account of the receipts and expenses of the Society, shall be made up every year to the time of the annual meeting, and shall be submitted to the Society to be printed and published with the next succeeding volume.

XVIII.—No alteration shall be made in these rules, except at an annual meeting. Notice of any such alteration shall be given, at least as early as the ordinary meeting of the Council immediately preceding, to be communicated to each member of the Society.
